The camps are for competitive swimmers ages 10+ seeking to refine all technical skills. Campers will work with college coaches and athletes to gain knowledge and a competitive edge. All camp activities and functions are under staff supervision.

TECHNIQUE CAMP

Higher priority placed on learning and refining all four strokes, starts, turns, and all specialized skills of competitive swimming. Campers must be able to mentally and physically endure classroom instruction and stroke drill sessions.

PURPLE RAIDER CAMP

This elite camp will cover foundations and critique on all four strokes, starts, turns, and underwater travel. Purple Raider campers must be in high training condition as the camp will include rigorous training sessions in addition to technique instruction. Ages 13+ are preferred for this camp.

Each Camp Includes

- Covering all aspects of competitive swimming in both classroom and pool settings
- Staff monitoring each lane and ensuring a high level of personal feedback for all campers
- Video Analysis utilizing underwater and above water cameras
- Class sessions aimed at improving the leadership and coachability in athletes

CAMP DIRECTOR

Eric Mojock is in his 12th season as head men's and women's swimming and diving coach at Mount Union in 2018-19.

Record-setting performances, conference champions, All-Americans and national qualifiers have become the standard under Mojock. Over his career, Mojock has coached 300 individual/relay all-conference selections and six national qualifiers who earned 17 All-American honors.

The women's team under Mojock has finished second or better every year since 2010. Highlights during this time include the first female All-American since 1990 and back to back Ohio Athletic Conference team titles in 2015 and 2016 which are the only two women's teams titles in school history.

On the men's side, Mojock has led the Raiders to third place or better finishers every year since 2012. In this time, a new male student-athlete has qualified for the national meet each season. Two Mount Union male swimmers have competed at the NCAA Championship meet within the last four years.

The efforts by he and his staff have been recognized by their peers as they have won OAC Coaching Staff of the Year honors three times. Mojock has coached six OAC Swimmers of the Year (4 women and 2 men) and three OAC Divers of the Year (2 men and 1 women).

On the men's side, Mojock has led the Raiders to four straight second place finishes with two OAC Men's Swimmer of the Year awards along with an OAC Diver of the Year.

His coaching style can be best described as technique first. "A solid foundation of stroke technique combined with a strong swimming IQ will unlock the potential of swimmers at every level."

Mojock earned bachelor's and master's degrees at Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pa. While at Westminster, he was a four-year letterwinner, team captain, NCAA Division II All-American and spent two seasons as an assistant swim coach. In 2014, Mojock was inducted into the Westminster Sports Hall of Fame.
